

I am concerned about media giants being able to own multiple radio and TV stations and newspapers I don't think this serves the American public, who owns the airwaves, well. Please keep the current regulations in place.